

Know the Benefits of being a CeleriTech Channel

And accompany your clients in their true Digital Transformation

What is the CeleriTech Channels program?

It is a formal alliance that allows us to work with B2B technology or service companies and consultants to expand the value they provide to their clients through our analytics solutions, physical warehouse management, process automation and communications, and integration with platforms and -Business; becoming our official channels for sale.

Who is it for?

Companies and consultants focused on adding value to organizations through technology while committed to developing business opportunities.

What is the focus?

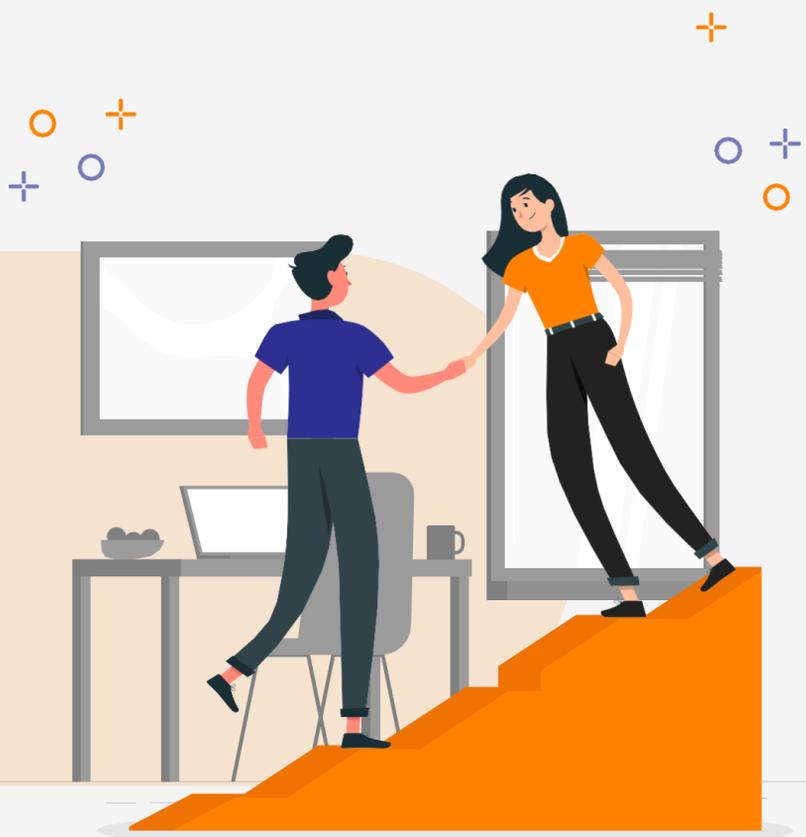

Provide solutions that allow companies to quickly adapt to today's changing market, at the same time they reach the expected levels of efficiency and profitability.

How does it work?

Applying as a channel, and once the application is approved, we will go through a qualification process where we will develop the skills that will allow them to create business opportunities that will provide their clients with significant benefits in an easy, simple, and fast way.
